

CALL FOR PAPERS AND POSTERS

Deadline Extended – January 30, 2020

Fourth Contemporary Challenges of International Environmental Law Conference

April 20-21, 2020

Faculty of Law, University of Ljubljana, Slovenia

www.environment-law-conference.com

The conference is an opportunity for interdisciplinary debate among scholars, scientists and practitioners from various disciplines addressing issues of environmental protection. The conference is open to a broad spectrum of topics with the intention to spark new scientific collaborations among diverse fields. The topics covered by the conference include, but are not limited to:

Climate Change
Air Pollution
Protection of Oceans
Access to Water
Forests
Biodiversity
Sustainable Development
Human Rights and Environment
Protection of Environment in Armed Conflicts
Environment and Indigenous Peoples
Green Energy
Waste Management
International Trade and Environmental Protection

Abstracts for papers and posters must be no longer than 350 words in length and should be submitted by Thursday, January 30, 2020 through email to CCIEL@pf.uni-lj.si. The submission must include the name and title of the author, position, name and address of the current institution of employment, and a short biography of maximum of ten lines. Please write the abstracts in third person (e.g. “the author believes ...” instead of “I believe ...” and “the article discusses ...” instead of “I will discuss ...”).

Successful applicants will be informed by February 5, 2020. The authors selected for paper presentation at the conference will be expected to submit completed papers with maximum 8,000 words in length (including footnotes and bibliography) by Sunday, March 8, 2020. The papers satisfying all publishing requirements will be published in a conference book.

Travel and accommodation costs will have to be carried by the authors of the selected papers and poster presentations themselves. Please address any further enquiries to CCIEL@pf.uni-lj.si.